

Farm Field Tour & Workshop

Saturday, Nov. 13, 2010, 11:30 a.m.

NWOSU Woodward Campus, 2007 34th Street, Woodward, OK

Featuring:

Local Food Working Luncheon with How USDA Programs Benefit
Farmers - Direct Marketing - Added-Value Products

Rainwater Harvesting & Composting (At 8:30 am & at the Farm)

Root Crops & the Oklahoma Coop

Youth Activities – Seeding, Transplanting & Plant Propagation

Tour of the Anichini-Moore Ranch & Farm

Pre-Registration: $10.00 (Waived for Children & Beginning Farmer Program students) by Oct. 11, 2010
Check payable to: Oklahoma Composting Council along with separate check made out to OSU for $5.00 for Rainwater Harvesting.

Send registration to: Woodward Tourism & Convention Bureau, Attn: Debbie Hickman

1222 10th Street, Suite 109, Woodward, OK 73801

580-256-9990 or 877-437-9990 (Mark the check Farm Field Tour in the Memo.)

A bus will leave the Langston University Oklahoma City campus at 4205 N. Lincoln at 9:00 a.m. (Free of charge)

© 2007 AG.com

All educational programs conducted by Langston University & Oklahoma State University are provided to all persons regardless of race, national origin, religion or disability.